

Name:

Hour:

Identify the following about each short film.

For this activity, only focus on identifying the inciting incident, conflict, climax, and theme.

“The Present Short Film” by Jacob Frey

Inciting Incident: What event sparks the fuse of the plot?

Conflict: What is the conflict?

What type of conflict?

Climax: What is the major turning point?

Theme: What might be the universal lesson?

“Soar” by Alyce Tzue

Inciting Incident: What event sparks the fuse of the plot?

Conflict: What is the conflict?

What type of conflict?

Climax: What is the major turning point?

Theme: What might be the universal lesson?

“Alma” by Pixar

Inciting Incident: What event sparks the fuse of the plot?

Conflict: What is the conflict?

What type of conflict?

Climax: What is the major turning point?

Theme: What might be the universal lesson?

Name:

Hour:

“Alike” by Daniel Martinez

Inciting Incident: What event sparks the fuse of the plot?

Conflict: What is the conflict?

What type of conflict?

Climax: What is the major turning point?

Theme: What might be the universal lesson?

“Paperman” by Pixar

Inciting Incident: What event sparks the fuse of the plot?

Conflict: What is the conflict?

What type of conflict?

Climax: What is the major turning point?

Theme: What might be the universal lesson?

“Feast” by Pixar

Inciting Incident: What event sparks the fuse of the plot?

Conflict: What is the conflict?

What type of conflict?

Climax: What is the major turning point?

Theme: What might be the universal lesson?