

The Necklace Group Activity

Each person in each group will have a component to focus on.

1. Exposition and conflict
2. Rising Action and Climax
3. Falling Action and Resolution
4. Theme and Irony

1. Exposition and conflict: Give background information. Identify characters: Protagonist and Antagonist. Identify if they are dynamic or static, round or flat. Identify the conflict and what type of conflict. Identify the setting.
2. Rising Action and Climax: Identify and summarize the events that led up to the climax. Identify the climax and explain how this is the turning point.
3. Falling Action and Resolution: Identify and summarize the events that follow the climax. Identify the resolution and how everything is resolved.
4. Theme and Irony: Identify the theme and give evidence that supports your theme. Identify what type of irony is exhibited and explain.

You are going to create a poster with the following. For each you need to have a visual or symbol that relates to the topic (ex. Exposition) and the story.

Exposition	Conflict	Rising Action	Climax
Falling Action	Resolution	Theme	Irony
