

To Kill a Mockingbird

Part 2 Review

From To Kill a Mockingbird, know the character who goes with the description below.

My arm was broken badly but I healed fine and I am able to still play football.

•

I make sure those Finch kids have good seats during the trial; I'm respected in the black community.

•

I die beholden to nothing and nobody; I have the respect of Atticus and later, Jem.

•

I've never accepted charity/handouts and I never will; a little girl reminded me I'm a father.

•

Apparently, I'm just as cold, reserved, and cruel as my deceased father; I filled a knothole

•

I sometimes seem to be napping, but I'm still taking everything in; I chose Atticus to defend Tom Robinson.

•

I won the case against Tom Robinson.

•

I'm the only child who sees and speaks to Boo Radley.

•

I'm nineteen and a half

As a teen, I was charged with a variety of crimes, including disorderly conduct; I watch after my children.

•

I'm a coward who harasses women and children; I spend my money on booze instead of feeding my children.

•

To protect Boo Radley. I'm going to lie about the physical evidence I found.

•

I'm 25 years old, married with three kids; I got my hands caught in a cotton gin and now have no use of my left arm.

•

I am full of stories and adventures; I try to get Boo Radley to come out.

•

I'm the biggest gossip in Maycomb.

•

I'm the best shot in Maycomb; I won the state legislature re-election without opposition.

•

I'm much older than I appear to be; I raise my children with manners and don't let them get away with anything.

•

Name

Date

Hour

My husband was accused of raping and beating a white woman; Bob Ewell harasses me as I walk to work.

•

I love gardening and baking cakes. I try to teach the Finch children about the ways of Maycomb and their father.

•

My nephew comes to stay with me every summer.

•

I do my best to teach Scout and Jem how to behave more like “Finches;” I have a very spoiled grandson named Fancis.

•

Tom Robinson worked for me; I offer a job to his wife after his death

•

Tom Robinson	Scout Finch	Atticus Finch	Arthur Radley	Miss Maudie
	Reverend Sykes	Jem	Aunt Alexandra	Dill Harris

1. “Thank you for my children, Arthur.” _____
2. “Hey, Boo.” _____
3. “...there’s just some kind of men you have to shoot before you can say hit to ‘em. Even then, they ain’t worth the bullet it takes to shoot “em.” _____
4. “There are some men in this world who were born to do our unpleasant jobs for us. Your father’s one of them.” _____
5. “They’ve done it before and they did it tonight and they’ll do it again and when they do it—seems that only children weep.” _____
6. “After all, if Aunty could be a lady at a time like this, so could I.” _____
7. “Yes, suh. I felt right sorry for her, she seemed to try more’n the rest of ‘em” _____
8. “The way that man called him ‘boy’ all the time and sneered at him...Hasn’t anybody got any business talkin’ like that—it just makes me sick.” _____
9. “I always thought Maycomb folks were the best folks in the world, least that’s what they seemed like.” _____

10. “People generally see what they look for, and her what they listen for, and they have the right to subject their children to it...” _____
11. “God damn it, I’m not thinking of Jem.” _____
12. “Will you take me home?” _____
13. “Yes, sir, I understand... Mr. Tate was right...it’d be sort of like shootin’ a mockingbird, wouldn’t it? _____
14. “Miss Jean Louise, stand up. Your father’s passin’.” _____
15. “...most people are Scout, when you finally see them.” _____
16. “He doesn’t show it much, but it tears him to pieces...They’re perfectly willing to let him do what they’re too afraid to do themselves.” _____
17. “One minute they’re trying to kill him and the next they’re tryin to turn him loose...I’ll never understand those folks as long as I live.” _____
18. “There ain’t one thing in this world I can do about folks except laugh, so I’m gonna join the circus and laugh my head off

Know the difference between Ethos, Pathos, and Logos and be able to identify an example from Atticus's closing statement.

Ethos-

Pathos-

Logos-

True or False

- Atticus advises Scout that looking at things from other people's points of view is the best way to get along with people.
- The novel is told in 1st person point of view.
- The jury returns its verdict of "guilty" after only twenty minutes.
- Atticus tells the children that Mrs. Dubose is an example of real courage.
- Heck Tate knowingly lies about Bob Ewell's death.
- The townspeople of Maycomb generally support Atticus's defense of Tom Robinson.
- Atticus is considered a static character.
- The setting of the story is not a significant aspect of the novel.
- Calpurnia and Aunt Alexandra work together to help Scout become a lady.
- Miss Maudie finds some positive outcomes from the verdict.
- After Tom's death, the town is shocked and sorrowed.
- Tom makes a big mistake in his testimony by telling the jury he feels sorry for Mayella.

Know the following definitions and be able to apply them to the novel:

Dynamic character	Exposition	Verbal Irony
Static character	Rising Action	Situational Irony
Foil Character	Climax	Dramatic Irony
Protagonist	Falling Action	Character vs. Character
Antagonist	Resolution	Character vs. Society
Round and Flat Characters	Foreshadowing	Character vs. Self
Setting	Flashback	Character vs. Nature